Good morning. Here is the first update on the convoy demonstration for February 23rd. Updates will come periodically throughout the day.

A friendly reminder that information contained in these emails is restricted to the Intersect partner agencies at this level. Please do not forward this information.

- Overnight, and so far today, there are no protesters in the Exclusion Zone or the Secured Area
- Outside of downtown, there are approx. 100 protest vehicles staged on a few private sites
- The remaining debris will be removed from 302 Coventry today
- A reminder that the Secured Area, which is restricted to those who live, work or have a lawful reason to be there, includes the following:

- Bronson to the Rideau Canal
- Laurier to Parliament Hill
- The Exclusion Zone, which is restricted to authorized personnel with valid work ID only, includes:
  - Bay to Elgin (including the National War Memorial)
  - The north side of Sparks (to allow pedestrian traffic along Sparks) to Parliament Hill.
- For workers who need access to the Exclusion Zone around Parliament Hill, there are 2 access points:
  - Kent/Sparks – pedestrians and vehicles
  - O'Connor/Sparks – pedestrians only – manned by a PPS officer 24/7 to verify credentials
- The workers allowed past these points will have to show proper government credentials (House of Commons, Senate, Supreme Court, Privy Council, etc)
- Sparks is accessible to pedestrians via a gated access at all intersections, except Elgin
- Supporting local businesses is considered a lawful reason to be in the Secured Area
- The status of the interprovincial bridges has not changed overnight:
  - Alexandra Bridge is open
  - Champlain Bridge is open
  - Chaudière Crossing is open
  - Macdonald-Cartier Bridge is open
  - Portage Bridge S/B is closed except for essential workers with valid ID
